Lukas Beech is one of the most influential search consultants in Asia, with about 20 years of deep expertise, especially in the Korean market. Highly regarded for his knowledge of the industrial and technology sectors, Lukas has worked with leading Korean, European and North American corporations on hiring global top talent for HQ-level executive positions, as well as professionals for regional or national leadership roles in China, Japan and Korea. Lukas is well regarded for his business acumen, providing clear market and strategic insights beyond the search function to help his clients accomplish their business goals.

Lukas Beech is a Partner at August Leadership, also representing the “German Desk in Asia” with multicultural expertise, German, English and Korean language skills, and a high degree of executive search expertise with which to support the senior hiring needs of international companies in Asia.

Before joining August Leadership, Lukas represented the industrial practice of DHR International as a Partner in the Seoul office, and had previously co-founded the management-consulting firm Nowak & Partner, where he worked as the Director of HR Services, leading the Executive Search and Recruitment department.

Lukas Beech was educated in Wellington, New Zealand and in Hamburg, Germany. He is an active member of the community, a Mentor in Korea with the German government's Asia Accelerator program, a co-founder and board advisor to the New Zealand Chamber of Commerce in Korea, a KEA World Class New Zealander, and a representative in Korea for the alumni of Victoria University of Wellington.
